Forecast For Northeast England
Issued by Met Office Exeter
at 1600 on Thursday 25 Feb 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Dry, and chilly overnight. Frosty in parts, with light winds.

This Evening and Tonight:
Dry with clear spells overnight. Winds will remain light leading to some frost developing, most likely in sheltered spots. Some mist or fog patches are possible, mainly across western rural parts. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Friday:
A fine, dry and mild day with plenty of sunshine and light winds. Any early mist or fog lifting, although perhaps some patchy cloud developing across western hills. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Cloudier Saturday with drizzle across hills. Drier Sunday and Monday with variable cloud and sunny spells. Overnight frost possible, with some mist or fog patches perhaps lingering along coastal parts.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.